CALL TO ARTISTS

Arts Fest looking for local exhibitors

Applications are now being accepted for the Arts Fest Beverly Community Art Exhibition, which will be held from May 25 to Aug. 3 at the Endicott College Center for the Arts. If you are an artist who either lives in Beverly, works in Beverly, is enrolled in a Beverly college or a senior in High School, or is affiliated with an arts guild or arts organization in Beverly, you are eligible to apply to this juried exhibition. The details are outlined below:

 Artist must live, work or study in Beverly

• Acceptable media include: paintings, drawings, photography, 3-D media (others can be discussed)

• Artist may submit one piece for consideration by the jury

 Artist must submit a jpg photo of the work that they will exhibit by May 1

Artist agrees to sign a

'Beyond the Garden,' an acrylic on canvas by Bea Modisett, an artist from last year's exhibit. COURTESY PHOTO

contract/release from Endicott College.

• Artist agrees to deliver their work to Endicott College by May 14 and have their work shown for the duration of the show (May 25 to Aug. 3) and retrieve their work at the completion of the show • No commission is taken if artwork is sold

If you are interested in exhibiting your work, contact Kathleen Moore at 978-232-2655 or email: kmoore@endicott.edu.
Jpegs can be sent to kmoore@endicott.edu with your name and contact information. Jurying will be completed and artists will be contacted by May 4.

Arts Fest Beverly: Community Art Exhibition is in conjunction with Arts Fest Beverly, a free outdoor festival in downtown Beverly on Saturday, June 16. The festival includes over 100 juried fine artists and crafters, music and entertainment, kids' activities, art-on-the-spot creations, great food and more.

For more information on Arts Fest Beverly, contact Gin Wallace, executive director of Beverly Main Streets, beverlymainstreets.org.